HOW TO USE THESE PAGES

THREE BIG WORDS

Post on the wall or give each child a copy. Review the three words before or after reading the story. Great for ages 3 and up.

MY MEMORY VERSE

Fill-in-the-blank activity for Acts 2:38 KJV. Read the verse aloud together first, then let kids complete the blanks. Answers are printed at the bottom of the page.

DRAW YOUR STORY

Open-ended creative response. Kids draw something God has done for them or how the story made them feel. Works for all ages — non-readers included.

TALK ABOUT IT

Five discussion questions for parents, teachers, and children's ministers. Use 1-2 questions per session or work through all five together.

LYDIA'S PRAYER

A simple prayer children can say in their own heart. Read it aloud together or let older kids read it on their own. It is a real prayer — treat it that way.

TALK ABOUT IT

Questions for parents, teachers, and children's ministers

1 What does repentance mean in your own words?

2 Why do you think the pastor said the Name of Jesus at the baptism?

3 Have you ever felt something you could not see but you knew was real? What was it?

4 Lydia said she felt like the real her after her baptism. What do you think she meant?

5 What would you tell a friend about Acts 2:38?

LYDIA'S PRAYER

Want to talk to God right now?

You can use Lydia's prayer.

Or use your own words.

God hears both.

Dear God, I want to know You.
I want to say sorry all the way down in my heart.
I want Your name over my life.
And I want You on the inside.
Just like You promised in Acts 2:38.
I believe You are real.
I believe Jesus is Your name.
And I am ready.
In Jesus Name. Amen.

A NOTE FOR TEACHERS AND MINISTERS

This book was written with one purpose. To give children a foundation they can stand on.

Acts 2:38 is not a complicated doctrine. It is an invitation. Repentance. Baptism in Jesus Name. The gift of the Holy Ghost.

As you read this book together, let the children ask questions. Let them be confused. Let them wonder. That is how real faith grows.

If a child is ready to be baptized, talk to your pastor. If a child is not ready yet — plant the seed. Water it with conversation. God will give the increase.
